

STIRRING RESOLUTIONS

PASSED BY THE TERRITORIAL CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

HON. C. W. GOULD MADE CHAIRMAN.

And John R. Clark Made Secretary of the Committee. The resolutions were read and are as follows:

The territorial Democratic central committee closed its session at an early hour yesterday morning. The meeting was at once spirited and interesting.

C. W. Gould of El Reno was elected to the chairmanship made vacant by the resignation of Hon. Leslie P. Ross, while John R. Clark of Stillwater was elected to Dan's former post, that of secretary.

A letter from Judge Bierer tendering his resignation as central committee member was read by Roy Hoffman, his proxy, who offered the following resolution:

Resolved, that in accepting the resignation of Judge A. G. C. Bierer we do so with profound appreciation of his services as a member of such committee.

And further, with a full sense of the magnitude of a reward so fittingly bestowed, we congratulate the Democracy in its nomination of Mr. Bierer as associate justice and the people of Oklahoma in the possession of an able, upright judge.

The resignation was accepted and the resolution adopted, as was also a vote of thanks to the retiring chairman, secretary and treasurer for their work while officers of the committee.

The resolutions passed were strong and stirring and are given below in full:

Whereas, it has come to the attention of the Democratic central committee of the territory of Oklahoma, in meeting assembled on this 24th day of January, 1904, at Oklahoma City, that there is located in the south part of K county on the line of the Santa Fe railroad, the town of New Ponce, whose population numbers about 250, and that said town is situated on the line of the Oklahoma territory, that it is supplied with a postoffice, which is situated in the town of New Ponce, and that the citizens of said town are now and have been ever since its organization, September 22, 1893, to receive their mail at the town of New Ponce, which is located on an Indian reservation one and a half miles distant from said town, and to bring the same at their own expense from Ponce Agency, located on the Indian reservation of the same name, and therefore be it

Resolved, that the committee do so with profound appreciation of his services as a member of such committee.

And further, with a full sense of the magnitude of a reward so fittingly bestowed, we congratulate the Democracy in its nomination of Mr. Bierer as associate justice and the people of Oklahoma in the possession of an able, upright judge.

BRILLIANT FUNCTION.

RECEPTION TENDERED RECTOR C. W. TYLER AND BRIDE.

CORDIAL GREETING TO A GOOD MAN.

McKennon Opera House a Scene of Regal Magnificence—Mingling of Fair Ladies and Brave Men.

There have been many happy social events in the capital city during the present season, and society has enjoyed itself to the full, but for brilliancy and splendor none equaled the event of last evening at the McKennon opera house. The occasion was a reception tendered Rev. Charles Whitcomb Tyler, rector of the Trinity Episcopal church of this city, and his charming wife (nee Miss Mary Livingstone Deves).

The affair was all the more enjoyable owing to its utter freedom from formality. No cards were issued, and all those who so wished were enabled to share the hospitality of the Episcopal Guilds, to whom all the credit for the success of the affair is due.

The house was beautifully decorated with lilies and cut plants, and vases of fragrant flowers dotted the spacious room. The chairs were arranged in tete-a-tete style and the guests were comfortably at home. Rev. Tyler and bride, Mr. and Mrs. Bishop Brooke and others receiving, stood directly in front of the stage which was banked in rich splendor with all the exotics of the hot house. Hidden behind an alcove of plants, an orchestra discoursed sweet strains of music. A light collation was served on the stage. All the callers were in evening dress, while the bride wore an exquisite gown of ivory satin. Mrs. Tyler is a tall brunette, of perfect grace and easy carriage, and her bright smiles and kindly salutations made her a favorite at once. She was favorably impressed with the cordiality shown her by Guthrie people, and already, is charmed with the capital.

Among the guests present were: Bishop and Mrs. Brooke, Messrs. and Mesdames F. B. Little, Hart, Bierer, Salmon, Searcy, Nicholson, Clatworthy, Geo. Gray, Sutton, Stapleton, Goodrich, White, Berkeley, A. L. Bixon, Martain, Cottinberham, Cannon, Greer, H. C. Barnes, Guss, Davighorst, Boggs, Cress, Cottrell, Fegans.

Mesdames, Rich, Cooley, C. M. Barnes, Asp, Burns, Manday, C. M. Orner, Van Voorhees, Kimball, J. C. Hoffman, Mator, Geo. Orner, Patterson, Harper, Cunningham, Dellman, Colburn.

CALIFORNIA.

—Ever been there?

—It is an ocean of ozone for invalids. —A sea of sensation for strangers. —A world of wealth for workers. —The Mid-Winter Fair, World's Fair Jr. I ought to attract you to San Francisco in 1894.

—Those who marveled at the displays in the California building, Jackson Park, should investigate further by taking a trip to the Pacific coast.

—It will be found that the half has not been told; the reality exceeds the promise.

—You can go quickly, cheaply and comfortably over the Santa Fe Route. A solid train all the way, running south of snow blockades, through picturesque New Mexico and Arizona.

—Personally conducted parties every week, in tourist sleepers or fast express trains. Thousands have patronized them.

—Very low round-trip rates now and effective, good any day and on any train.

—If you write to G. T. Nicholson, G. P. A. A. T. & S. F. R. R., Topeka, Kan. he will mail free, of charge, an entertaining book, "To California and Back," profusely illustrated.

—It will inevitably confirm the latent desire to see California face to face.
